

I urge you to reconsider any attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Citizens are fed up with the increasing volume of unsolicited phone calls and have shown their disdain for this practice by signing up "to be left alone." Please allow us "to call you"!